When the official wagon was put out of business several weeks ago by an ac cident. Fire Marshal William Coupe, who is an ardent Germantown citizen, immedistely offered his automobile. Those who are in a habit of coming to the police station every Saturday immediately spread the news, and very soon the po-lice had more petty offenders than ever-It was noticeable, too, that the driver took the riders to the station house in roundabout way. Incidentally, Magistrate Pennock, who conducts the hearings in Germantown, found that the cases have increased threefold since the auto began serving as a patrol, while the charges were so slight that three-fourths of the pulson-ers were discharged. In fact, things ers were discharged. reached such a stage that the approach of the touring car very often was the signal for an impromptu fight in the campaign. There will be drills, demonstreet.
